Congress Leaders Requested To Meet With President Early in December To Complete Their Recommendations

FINANCING BY U. S. SUGGESTED BY F.D.R.

Chief Executive Says Agricultural Civilization Must Be Built on Home, Farm Ownership.

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 21.—

(AP)—President Roosevelt today called upon Senator John H. Bankhead, Democrat, Alabama, and Representative Marvin Jones, Democrat, Texas, to prepare "plans for meeting the farm tenancy problem."

"Any long-term improvement of the welfare of the nation and of the farm people," the President wrote Bankhead, "involves improvement of the tenancy situation."

The letter was made public by White House officials. A similar message went to Jones, who is chairman of the house agriculture committee.

Before leaving Washington for Hyde Park yesterday, Mr. Roosevelt named committees to work out legislative recommendations for what he called an "all risk" crop insurance plan and for efficient utilization of the resources of the Great Plains area, hard hit by drought in 1934 and 1935.

Co-operations Asked.

Today he asked Bankhead to meet with Jones and "co-operate in preparing plans for meeting the tenancy problem that might be undertaken by the federal government. He added:

"I realize your long interest and that of Congressman Jones in this important problem and wish that you and he would arrange to meet with me early in December when we can complete our recommendations to congress for legislation deemed to bring about improvements in the tenancy situation."

Announcement of the new attack on the farm tenancy problem came in the middle of a presidential day spent quietly at Mr. Roosevelt's spacious home above the Hudson.

The President's only appointment was with Vincent Bailey, New York state manager of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, with whom he talked over the state's political outlook.

The main feature of Mr. Roosevelt's day was a birthday dinner in the evening honoring his mother, Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt. She was 82 today.

U. S. Financing Suggested.

As an approach to the farm tenancy problem, the President suggested to Bankhead government financing of land purchased by tenants.

Other countries, he said, have appreciably increased farm ownership through such a plan. He mentioned Ireland and Denmark particularly.

"I think we need some such approach," he said. "It should be ten-

Ideal Highway for Motorized Units Leads Directly to Capital and Another to Besieged Alcazar; Dead Litter Path of Conquering Rebels.

(Copyright, 1936, by the United Press.) WITH THE SPANISH REBEL ARMY AT MAQUEDA, Tuesday, Sept. 22.—General Francisco Franco captured Maqueda Monday.

Loyalists are fleeing northward in great disorder. Columns of lorries are dashing at full speed toward Madrid, with Rebel armored cars in hot pursuit.

By ELMER W. PETERSON (Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press.) TALAVERA DE LA REINA, Spain.—(By Courier to France.)

Sept. 21.—Four columns of trained Fascist troops tonight "reduced to ruins" Maqueda, strategic highway junction only 45 miles southwest of Madrid.

The fall of Maqueda was predicted by the insurgent high command any day, with the government defenders reported put to rout all along the line.

With tanks and airplanes, the forces of General Francisco Franco brushed aside the resistance of government reinforcements brought up to rally their scattered battle line.

Bodies littered the fields and roadways were littered with the bodies of government dead as the Fascist advance, clogged so fast that at times neither artillery units nor staff officers could keep up with them.

Overhead, government war planes sought to accomplish what their land forces had been unable to do—cut off the Rebel advance from the rear.

At Talavera de la Reina, captured by the Fascist 10 days ago, government planes kept up a steady bombardment that was one of the most vicious of the Spanish civil war.

Unexploded bombs lay on the streets of the city. Dozens of houses were wrecked.

Among the wounded was Lieutenant Colonel Jose Sainz, member of the Fascist political council, and former Stuyvesant High school student in New York.

A burst of shrapnel tore through a window and hit him on the hand.

U.S. GATHERS DATA TO INSURE COTTON BATTLE FOR PEACE, BAKER TELLS VETS

Bureau Has Been Compiling Statistics on Subject for Several Months

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Wheat, cotton and corn were listed by Department of Agriculture spokesmen today as major commodities upon which data looking toward crop insurance is being assembled.

At a press conference, Secretary Wallace denied that President Roosevelt's creation of a special committee to suggest an all-risk crop insurance plan to congress had been timed to "steal the show" from the announcement by Governor Alf M. Landon.

He said he was unaware that the Republican presidential candidate had planned to discuss crop insurance in a speech tomorrow at Des Moines, Iowa.

"Ripening Consciousness."

Asked why the administration was advocating crop insurance when the idea had been omitted from the Democratic platform, the Secretary of Agriculture said:

"I think it's just a matter of public consciousness ripening."

He planned to call a meeting tomorrow of the committee which the President appointed Sunday.

Wallace asserted that crop insurance was "too big a thing for private enterprise" but that the government could take a loss and still be ahead of the game "because of savings in relief expenditures that otherwise would be necessary."

Staff of 100 Busy.

A. G. Black, chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics and a member of the committee, revealed that a staff of slightly less than 100 persons has been busy assembling actual data on crops insurance for several months.

Production reports from millions of farms on which operators received benefit payments under the AAA have been used in the work, he said.

Roy M. Green, chief of the financial division under Black, said federal

SELESSIE'S AIDES WIN FIRST ROUND AT LEAGUE PARLEY

Italian Delegates Refuse To Attend Session; Special Report on Credentials To Be Made.

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Haile Selassie tonight tasted victory, however temporary it might prove to be, over the representatives of Italy's Premier Mussolini.

Flying from London on a last-minute decision, the erstwhile "King of Kings" arrived to learn that representatives of his lost Ethiopian kingdom were sitting in the League general assembly.

Mussolini, whose Fascist legions wrested Selassie's empire from him, had insisted that unless Ethiopia were barred from League discussions, Italy would stay away. Italian delegates did not attend sessions today.

The League credentials committee today approved the credentials of all delegations except that of Ethiopia. The committee said a special report would be submitted later on the status of Selassie's delegates.

Under this procedure, members of the committee said, the Ethiopians were entitled to sit in the assembly until they were officially ruled out.

Complicated Matter.

The entire situation regarding Ethiopia was so complicated, one member said, it might have to be taken to the World Court. Ethiopian delegates when they arrived for the League assembly declared that if they were barred they would take the case to the World Court.

"The Ethiopian decision," one member of the credentials committee said, "will constitute an historic precedent. It may have an influence on the future of the League."

NEGRO CONFESSES HAVANA BOMBING

Spaniard Group Named as 'Intellectual Authors' While 100 Are Held.

HAVANA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A Cuban negro, responsible sources said tonight, confessed his own participation and named a group of Spaniards in Havana as the "intellectual authors" of the dynamiting of the newspaper El Pais in which four persons were killed Sunday.

He was reported to have made the statement after almost 24 hours of continuous questioning by police. A white man—another Cuban—was questioned along with the negro but refused to admit any part in the dynamiting.

100 Are Held.

In the meantime, 100 terrorists and members of the Spanish Socialist circle were jailed by Havana police and held in connection with the bombing. Damage amounted to $500,000.

Another development which brought the Spanish radical theory to the fore was an informal statement by a police official in which the officer said that the investigation was "progressing" and that "we are making more arrests right along, especially among Spanish Socialists."

Relates Story.

The negro was said to have related a complicated story of dealings between

Last Tower of Alcazar Crumples Under Fire of 6-Inch Field Pieces

By ALEXANDER H. UHL (Copyright, 1936, by North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc., Sept. 21.—Life in these parts is just one thing after another, and sometimes it's several things after another, all at once—such as the rush of the automobile collectors upon a poor, shy movie star, or the yelping onslaught of our estate beagles when a visiting nobleman incautiously intimates that he might sell his trailer and buy a lot.

But complications also pile up for a lifelong resident who has been here, as I have, nearly two years now and so is qualified to join the Early Pioneers' California Society. Here I go and take on a radio program—and I did so hope to fit east to see what Mrs. Harrison Williams will be wearing this fall. refuge in the ancient fortress. How many ill life after the bombardments and explosion of two tons of dynamite, no one professed to know. The women and children, it was believed, were herded into the dank underground passage beneath the fortress' crumbling walls.

Sniping battled continually during the night as mechanics worked to repair the tank which had played an important part in the government's attack on the fortress Friday.

A government civil guard escaped tonight from the Alcazar where he had been drawing maps surreptitiously. His drafts, it was learned, showed where the rebels cached their ammunition and food deposits.

An escaped civilian, Rufino Santos, said most of the men, women and children in the fortress had only brown bread and horsefeed to eat. Food supplies, he said, were exhausted on the seventh day of the siege. Officers, he said, waited in line the same as everyone else for their rations.

PAY HIKE IS VOTED, BLOCKED BY FOES

Milam and White Force Reconsideration After Council Approves Bill.

City council yesterday voted to divert $35,000 to reinstate five percent of the ten per cent cut now imposed on the non-school employees making $100 a month or more, and the measure was prevented from reaching the aldermanic board only through invocation of a notice to reconsider at council's October 5 session.

The issue consumed about two hours in one of the most acrimonious debates in recent months, and ended when council sustained a finance committee recommendation that the vote be allowed by a vote of 16 for to 6 against.

Reconsideration Forced.

Finance Committee Chairman Aubrey Milam and Vice Chairman John A. White served notice that they would move for reconsideration. This, according to parliamentary procedure, the measure rests in council until the next regular meeting of that body.

Aldermanic board concurrence is mandatory before it reaches the mayor for his action.

Councilmen George B. Lyle, J. Allen Couch and Aldermen Ed. A. Gilman and Robert Carpenter were the major proponents of passage, while Milam, White and Alderman J. Charlie Murphy were the leading opponents.

A move to re-refer the measure to the finance committee for reconsideration failed on a viva voce vote, and the paper was placed before the council for adoption or rejection.

Rival Contentions.

Proponents contended that the financial condition of the city warrants the restoration, while those opposing it held that such a move would add to an already increasing municipal deficit.

After the vote was taken, and the motion to reconsider was formally filed, opponents said "the measure will not be passed now in order that it cannot be used in Wednesday's political campaign."

Lyle denied vehemently that he was influenced by politics in presenting it, and asserted that as far as he knows it involves no politics.

The council voted to award the contract for a portion of the work on the Clayton disposal plant to the

Police Find Finger, Remains Unclaimed

WAKEFIELD, Mass., Sept. 21 (UP)—Police tonight sought a man belonging to a freshly lost right index finger.

The finger was found during the day by Patrolman Merritt Wenzel in a vacant lot near the local high school athletic field.

Medical Examiner Roscoe D. Perley theorized the finger was torn or pulled from the victim's hand.

A checkup disclosed no one had applied for medical treatment. Meanwhile, the finger remained unclaimed.

CANDIDATES MAKE LAST PLEAS TODAY

Mayoralty Race Tops List; 14,000 to 16,000 Expected To Cast Ballot.

With a total of 38,000 persons qualified to vote in the city Democratic run-off primary tomorrow, two candidates for mayor, eight for four councilmanic positions, and five for three executive committee posts planned eleventh hour appeals for support today, and tonight.

The mayor's race between William B. Hartfield and James L. Key, incumbent, is the only city-wide race. Councilmen are to be elected in the second and sixth wards.

Thirty-seven polling places will be maintained tomorrow by the executive committee, and it was predicted that between 14,000 and 16,000 persons, approximately half of the registration, will cast ballots. Polls will be open from 7 o'clock tomorrow morning until 7 o'clock at night.

Must Vote For Two.

Voters again were warned by officials of the Democratic committee that they must vote for two councilmen from the second and sixth wards. If they vote for only one, the ballot does not count.

In the second ward, Horace M. Rantin, George B. Lyle, Walter M. Sutton and E. A. Minor are engaged in the run-over, and in the sixth, W. Paul Carpenter, Howard Haire, Frank Wilson and Alvin Richards are fighting for the two council posts.

The run-over primary was necessitated in these and the mayors race when no candidate received a majority of the votes cast.

Hartfield, member of the state legislature, led Mayor Key by a plurality of 417 votes in the city primary held September 2. He spoke last night at a rally at the Lula Kingsberry school in the new third ward, reiterating his demand for a clean-up of the police department.

Rally For Key.

A rally for Key was held last night at Park drive and North boulevard and another is scheduled at 814 Marietta street tonight for the mayor.

Slot Machines, Dice and Balls Are Cited in Indictments; Warrants Reported in Readiness.

Doors of the Embassy Club, closed since August 31 as "a measure of precaution" while the Gwinnett county grand jury was in session, will remain closed indefinitely, it was indicated yesterday.

Warrants against five men, who are charged with being operators of the alleged night club and gambling resort, have been returned by the grand jury and last night were said to be in the hands of Gwinnett county officers.

The five are listed as Joe Hogg, Bob Hogg, Russell Gravely, Willie Flynn and J. D. Boney. Their addresses are not given in the indictment, nor is the name of the Embassy Club mentioned, but H. C. Whitener, a Baptist minister of Buford, who was foreman of the grand jury, said last night:

"I made some personal investigations of the Embassy Club two weeks before the grand jury met. While I was doing this, I was recognized and the place was suddenly closed. The grand jury went into the operation of the club as fully as we could. We were hampered because of lack of information, but we summoned everyone in Gwinnett county who we thought might know something about the place. The indictments were the result."

The Embassy Club nestled in the woods several miles north of Atlanta, just over the Gwinnett county line beyond the point where the new Gainesville highway passes through DeKalb.

It was an isolated spot," said Dr. Whitener last night. "It was far more accessible to Atlanta than at any point in Gwinnett county. We found that most of its patrons were drawn from DeKalb and Fulton counties. In fact, it was more than 150 or 200 yards off the highway and was not easily found from the road. It was a place where they were going. Frankly, I

New Tropical Storm Halts Forward Motion

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A tropical storm in the Atlantic ocean far east of Florida virtually halted its forward motion tonight and weather bureau observers looked for a change of course.

Winds at the center were described as near hurricane in intensity and at 9:30 p. m. weather bureau advisory said the disturbance was gaining both in area and strength.

"Storm has moved very little in past six hours," the bureau said. "and indications are it will change direction of movement during the night, probably to the north or northeast."

Until this afternoon, the storm had been moving northward.

It was charted tonight about 430 miles northeast of Nassau, the Bahamas.

ROOSEVELT LIBERALS, NON-PARTISANS AGREE

Alliance Stirs Talk of New Party in 1940 Based on Labor, Farm.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Announcement today of an alliance of Labor's Non-Partisan League with the newly created Progressive National Committee to work for re-election of President Roosevelt revived political talk of the possibilities of a third party in 1940 built on labor and farm votes.

Agreement of the two groups to cooperate in the current campaign was made public by Major George L. Berry, president of the league, at a press conference attended also by Senator La Follette, Progressive, Wisconsin, chairman of the recently formed Progressive committee.

Although the announcement emphasized the alliance was for the duration of the present campaign, it immediately stirred speculation over the possibilities for 1940. Asked whether the coalition meant he and his associates were looking forward to a progressive-labor party four years hence, La Follette replied:

"So far as I am concerned, I was chairman of that (Chicago) conference and I am not in a position to speak for the 114 people who were there."

He asserted the conference took no action looking beyond the current campaign. This was similar to the stand taken by Labor's Non-Partisan League which, although pledged to President Roosevelt this year, has made no commitments for 1940.

La Follette told reporters he and his associates had deemed it "wise" to confer with the Labor League concerning joint plans for the campaign because John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers' president, and Sidney Hillman, head of the Amalgamated clothing workers, had been "fraternal delegates" to the conference at Chicago. He said he hoped to arrange for similar co-operation with other "non-partisan" groups working for the re-election of Roosevelt and listed the all-party committee, an agricultural body, and the Good Neighbor League among such groups.

TROOPS REVIEWED Hitler Surveys Forces, Plans War Maneuvers.

FULDA, Germany, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler, the erstwhile lance corporal and now supreme chief of Germany's armed forces, tonight surveyed the new German army he created.

The reich's armed forces will participate in elaborate maneuvers for the next five days covering virtually the entire province of Hesse.

Two complete corps, containing about 100,000 men, comprise the "armies" under Generals Geyser and Dollmann.

The maneuvers are said by the German high military command to be the biggest in 23 years.

Real artillery and tanks will be used, with the men subjected to strenuous tests of endurance. One company marched 300 miles in 17 days.

SHOLTZ WILL INSTALL DECATUR ELKS LODGE

Group To Be First Founded in Georgia in Nearly Quarter Century.

A new lodge of Elks is to be installed in Decatur the night of October 13.

Known as Decatur Lodge No. 1602, B. P. O. E. it will be the first Elks lodge established in Georgia in 24 years. Charter dispensation already has been granted for its establishment by the grand lodge of the order. It will be organized at the Candler hotel, but permanent lodge rooms will be selected soon.

Governor Dave Sholtz, of Florida, newly-elected grand exalted ruler, will visit Atlanta and personally participate in the installation ceremonies. Others who will participate in the installation will be John S. McClelland, solicitor general, recently elected vice chairman of the board of grand trustees; Charles G. Bruce, district deputy grand exalted ruler for North Georgia; Frank M. Robertson, exalted ruler of Atlanta Lodge No. 78; J. Bush, of Athens, immediate past district deputy; Aaron Cohen, of Athens, and a large number of other high officials of Elksdom, many from other lodges over the state.

Governor Sholtz will be met in Atlanta by a delegation of representatives from Elks' lodges throughout the state, and escorted in a motorcade to the Candler hotel, where he will be greeted by Decatur and DeKalb county officials. In addition to Governor Sholtz, Mr. McClelland and Mr. Bruce, as well as a number of other officials, will speak at the dedication ceremonies of the new lodge.

More than 50 of Decatur's most representative citizens have united to become charter members of this fraternal and patriotic organization, as it becomes linked into brotherhood with more than 15 similar lodges throughout the state, which have been flourishing for more than a quarter of a century, and 1,400 throughout the United States and its possessions.

This new lodge has been in process of formation for the last six months, due largely to the efforts of Mr. Bush and Mr. Cohen, of Athens, and Mr. McClelland, J. Clayton Burke and Mr. Bruce, of Atlanta. Among the new members who will be initiated on the occasion of the installation of the lodge and from whom the officers will be chosen, are:

J. R. (Jack) Hall, R. Inman Ragsdale, J. M. Kemp, H. O. Hubert Jr., Augustus M. Roan, James C. Davis, Thomas E. Baber, S. L. Threagill, J. O. Bowen, R. M. Bowen, Frank Guess, Alex McLennan, T. P. ## JUDGE DISMISSES ASSESSMENT SUIT

Group Loses in Move to Force Change in Valuation Policy.

Suit of a group of Atlanta property owners to force Fulton county to make its own tax assessments was dismissed in Fulton superior court yesterday by Judge E. D. Thomas, who sustained demurrers filed on behalf of the county by Attorney James A. Branch.

The property owners contended it was illegal for the county to make its tax assessments on the basis of 70 per cent of the assessment made by the city of Atlanta.

It was said property valued at more than $2,000,000 was involved.

Judge Thomas denied an injunction to prevent the county commissioners and the county tax assessors from using the city's assessment as the basis two years ago, and this decision was upheld by the Georgia supreme court. Yesterday the demurrers of the county were heard and sustained, ending the litigation in the superior court.

The property owners claimed the assessments on the 70 per cent basis by the county were too large.

PLATFORM OUTLINED BY PROHIBITION PARTY

Slate of State Candidates To Be Filed Friday by J. B. Lockhart.

L. P. Glass, of Sylvania, yesterday made public the platform of the state prohibition party and said candidates for presidential electors, governor and lieutenant governor would be filed with the secretary of state Friday.

Glass, representing the party, said J. B. Lockhart, of Covington, chairman of the Georgia committee, would file the list of candidates. The names will be announced at that time, he said.

Glass said the 15-plank platform was adopted in Atlanta September 12. A copy he presented said "we advocate that all laws taxing or licensing a traffic which produces crime, poverty, murder, political corruption and spreads disease and death should be repealed."

"We seek to unite the opponents of the liquor traffic," the copy said, "and then marshal all the powers of government for the suppression of that traffic."

Planks declared in favor of "governmental integrity," law enforcement, a strict police system, "economy and efficiency in government administration," self-convening power for the legislature, free school books (but opposition of beer revenue for purchases of the books), old-age pensions, Sunday observance, protection of the rights of "labor and capital," enlistment of youth in "saving the great problems involving the preservation and integrity of American institutions."

Opposed were "the bipartisan conspiracy by which the 18th amendment was removed from the constitution," malfeasance in office, gambling and "extorted confessions."

One plank held that the state, in licensing the sale of intoxicants, "ought to be held together with the manufacturer and seller jointly liable for all damages that result therefrom."

WILHITE TAKES OATH OF HIGH COURT POST

Van Whitte, Atlanta attorney, was sworn in yesterday as secretary to Chief Justice Richard B. Russell Sr. of the Georgia supreme court. He succeeds Claude Houser, who resigned to return to private law practice.

Whitte was secretary to Judge Beverly D. Evans when he was a justice of the supreme court before being appointed to the federal bench. He was formerly secretary to United States Senator Walter F. George when the latter served on the Georgia court of appeals and supreme court. For some time Whitte was connected with the Georgia Industrial Commission.

Mrs. Mitt Wynes was given a life term in Heard county for the death of her daughter-in-law. Her son was sentenced to the electric chair.

CANDIDATES TO MAKE FINAL PLEAS TODAY

City executive committee, pointed out. A. E. Everett will be the executive committee member from the first ward, since his opponent, C. F. McDonald, was entitled to enter in the run-over, but did not qualify. J. H. Leathers and Seah Sharp are seeking the post in the third ward, while Charles N. Walker and J. F. Graham are the candidates for the committee from the sixth.

Charges Fly Fast.

The mayoral race has been featured by charges and counter charges and has aroused considerable interest throughout the city. Each has accused the other of avoiding the "real issues" of the campaign. No campaign literature will be distributed on Atlanta's streets tomorrow, and poll workers of no candidate may approach a voter within 200 feet of a polling place. City ordinances provide heavy penalties for violation of these rules.

Easy to open

The patented easy-open top is just one of the features that make Kellogg's Corn Flakes the world's favorite ready-to-eat cereal. A push of the thumb opens the sealed carton. And there are your crisp flakes—oven-fresh, flavor-perfect, ready to serve with milk or cream!

Addresses Underwriters

U. S. UNDERWRITERS HEAR N. B. MADDOX

Boston Convention Told How Gate City Boosts Membership.

Rules governing the increase of membership in local underwriters' associations were outlined by Baxter Maddox, president of the Atlanta Underwriters' Association, in the opening session of the ninth annual convention of the Underwriters' Association of America in Boston last night.

Maddox had been asked to speak on "Membership" and to tell how the Atlanta association had secured such a large increase during 1936.

"Membership interest can be stimulated by means of publicity in the local press and by association activity in civic and community drives," he told the convention. "Association men should always be encouraged to take an interest in national, state and local affairs as do lawyers and doctors."

He urged the holding of meetings for members only as being advantageous.

Key Says Foe Lacks Police Plan; Cleanup Promised by Hartsfield

'Who Owns my Opponent,' Mayor Asks, Charging 'Petty Court Trafficking.'

Mayor Key in a statement last night attacked William B. Hartsfield, his opponent in Wednesday's municipal primary, striking at what he termed Hartsfield's "associates in petty police court trafficking," and asked "who owns Hartsfield?"

Friends of Key held a community gathering last night at the home of Jack Weinkle, Park drive and Boulevard, Weinkle made a strong speech in behalf of Key's candidacy, and three candidates for the two councilmanic nominations from the new sixth ward, also spoke. They were Alvin L. Richards, W. Paul Carpenter and Howard Hairs.

There will be another and the last ward gathering of the Key drive at 7:30 o'clock tonight at 8:14 Marietta street.

Mayor's Statement.
Text of the statement follows:
"Many false and extravagant charges have been made against me, but I want to say that I fully appreciate the fact that Atlanta's continued growth and development depend on constructive things. These include better schools, enlarged parks and playgrounds, improved sanitary conditions, wider streets and greater opportunities for cultural and material expansion."

"My opponent has been so engaged in trumping up spurious charges, that the only thing he has demonstrated to the complete satisfaction of law-abiding citizens is that he has not the essential moral fiber or the backbone either to originate or carry out a constructive program."

"He has consistently refused to outline definite reforms in the police department. I have made the following promise and I repeat it now: 'If the present committee on public safety does not continue to function in the public interest, I will bend every effort to secure legislation to appoint a non-partisan and non-political committee of outstanding public citizens, just as I did in the case of the Grady hospital. You know me well enough to know I will do exactly as I have promised.'"

"My opponent has asked this question: 'Who owns Mr. Hartsfield?' 'Bound Hand and Foot.' 'If elected he would be bound hand and foot by his associates in petty police court trafficking.' 'Wouldn't he be under obligations to his client and close associates, Mr. Armistead, the private tax investigator, and yield to pressure to intimidate and oppress the businessmen of our city? Wouldn't he be confronted with his own financial irresponsibility and yield to unscrupulous contractors who would find in him a weak official, lacking stability and character?' 'These are important questions. I have never wavered when it comes to a question affecting the interests of Atlanta. I have demonstrated that I possess the essential qualifications to conduct the office of mayor fairly, cleanly and honestly.'"

ST. ELMO ANDREWS SUCCEUMS AT HOME
St. Elmo Andrews, 68, of 1832 Lakewood avenue, died yesterday morning at his residence after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Andrews was born and reared in Jackson, Ga., and came to Atlanta in 1910, where he had been connected with the warehouse business for 20 years. He was a member of the Macedonia Baptist church, in Butts county.

He is survived by his wife, who formerly was Miss Mary Thornton, of Jackson; one son, Paul R. Andrews, of Atlanta, and two brothers, O. A. Andrews and W. M. Andrews, of Jackson.

Funeral services will be at 4 o'clock this afternoon (central standard time) at the Macedonia church, and burial will be in the churchyard.

J. B. D. Woodburn, 45, of Seminole, Okla., formerly of Barnesville, relative of a number of Atlantans, died yesterday at a private hospital at Tulsa, Okla.

Surviving him are his wife; a daughter, Marguerite Woodburn; four sisters, the Misses Maurine, Catherine and Christine Woodburn, all of Atlanta; and Mrs. A. B. Olofin, of Coral Gables, Fla.; his mother, Mrs. J. B. D. Woodburn Sr., of Atlanta, and two brothers, C. E. and H. M. Woodburn, both of Atlanta.

BROTHER OF SCULPTOR, DR. F. L. BORGLUM, DIES
PRESCOTT, Ariz., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Dr. Frank L. Borglum, brother of Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, died of a heart attack at his mountain home near here yesterday.

He was in charge of the receiving ward of the veterans' hospital at Whipple barracks.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. E. A. Moore, Storrs, Conn.

NAVY OFFICER'S DEATH
NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Navy authorities were expected today to name a board of inquiry to conduct a regulation investigation of the death of Lieutenant Harold G. Hazard, naval aviator, who died early yesterday of pistol wounds his wife said were self-inflicted.

Mrs. Boyd Hazard, the wife, said she witnessed the shooting, which happened so quickly she could not prevent it. A bullet from a .45-caliber gun entered the roof of his mouth and emerged through the right side of the head. He died instantly.

Dr. C. D. J. MacDonald, city coroner, and Detective Leon Nowitzky, his investigator, said the death was a suicide and no civil inquest would be held. They did not announce a motive.

Naval records showed Lieutenant Hazard was born in Pennsylvania in 1900, entered the Naval Academy in 1918 and graduated in 1922.

5 KILLED, 25 INJURED
MILWAUKEE, (Tuesday) Sept. 22.—(UP)—Five persons were killed and 25 injured early today when a train crashed into a bus at a grade crossing three miles from Gignac. Ten other passengers aboard the bus escaped injury.

Mississippians Accept S. C. Vote Challenge
SENATORIA, Miss., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Mississippi democracy formally accepted today the challenge to produce as many Roosevelt votes in the November election as South Carolina.

Herbert Holmes, chairman of the Mississippi state Democratic executive committee, wired the acceptance to Robert M. Cooper, South Carolina party leader, who extended the challenge last Saturday.

"We warn you," Holmes said, "that we shall continue in the future the record maintained for more than 50 years of always giving the Democratic nominees the largest percentage of votes of any state in the Union."

When Cooper flung down the gauntlet to Mississippians, he said it might serve as "added stimulus to our campaign for a larger registration and a bigger vote."

RESERVE LEADERS APPOINTED AT TECH

Preston Made R. O. T. C. Colonel, Long New Commandant of Naval Unit.

Two Atlanta students at Georgia Tech yesterday were honored with appointments of high rank in the military and naval units of the school.

Charles B. Preston was named colonel of the R. O. T. C. regiment and David D. Long was appointed commandant of the naval unit.

Preston. Long.

mandant of the naval battalion for the 1936-37 term, it was announced by the military and naval departments of Tech.

Preston, who is a member of the coast artillery R. O. T. C., is a graduate of Boys' High school where he was first-string center of the southern prep championship team of 1932. Continuing his athletic career, he has made two varsity letters in football and one in varsity track at Georgia Tech. He is a center of the Jacket's first team, filling the same position held last year. He is a member of Seaboard and Blade, national honorary military organization.

Long, the new naval commandant, is also a Boys' High graduate. He is prominent in student activities at Tech, where he is president of Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary fraternity; past president of the Phi Eta Sigma freshman scholastic fraternity; an honor roll student for three years, a member of the student honor council, managing editor of the Technique, campus newspaper; member of the naval rifle team, treasurer of the Seaboard and Blade, and winner of the gold "T" for scholarship.

Announcements of the complete staffs and battalion and company commanders will be made later this week.

7 Stitches in His Heart, Stabbed Man Will Live

LAUREL, Miss., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Dr. Robert T. McLaurin announced he had performed an operation to-night requiring sewing seven stitches on the heart of a man who had been stabbed.

The physician said that the victim, T. N. Lowe, 22, "will get well if his condition remains as it now is."

Officers arrested a man listed as Scott Parish, of Laurel, in connection with the case. They withheld charge, however, pending outcome of Lowe's wounds.

"I thought he was dead when he was on the operation table," Dr. McLaurin said in discussing the case. "His only chance was a quick operation to sew up the wound, and to take the stitches the wound had to be enlarged."

Immediately after the operation I gave him glucose and saline and as soon as possible, a blood transfusion."

The wound in the heart, Dr. McLaurin said, was caused by a "long knife."

Lowe suffered additional stab wounds in the abdomen and kidney.

SIX ARE INDICTED IN CONTUMACY CASE
LaFollette Senate Committee Strengthened in Labor Violation Probe.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Six grand jury indictments today strengthened the hand of the senate committee investigating charges by organized labor of violations of civil liberties, on the eve of the resumption of the inquiry tomorrow.

Contumacy indictments were returned in federal district court here today against six officials of the Railway Audit & Inspection Co. for failure to answer subpoenas at the committee's original hearing August 31. They were the first indictments under a new law enacted at the last session of congress.

An open inquiry into the industrial detective firm's activities will be resumed tomorrow, investigators said, when they will present a mass of tattered records they said were seized from the company's waste baskets in seven cities.

Failure to turn over these records in response to a committee subpoena was charged in today's indictments, which also accused the officials of "willfully, knowingly and unlawfully" refusing to appear as witnesses.

Those indicted on the two counts were: W. W. Groves, company president; W. Boone Groves, vice president; James E. Blair, secretary-treasurer, and Operative J. C. Boyer, all of Pittsburgh; L. Douglas Rice, general manager of the Philadelphia office, and Robert S. Judge, New York attorney.

TWO COUNTY RALLY ASSAILS TAX LIMIT

Officials of DeKalb, Fulton Term Plan "Rich People's Pact."

A mass meeting protesting against the 15-mill tax limitation amendment to the state tax bill was held last night at the DeKalb county courthouse with approximately 150 residents of DeKalb and Fulton counties attending. Officials of both counties spoke against the proposal.

Addresses attacking limitation were delivered by C. A. Matthews, DeKalb county commissioner; Jere Wells, superintendent of Fulton county schools; W. M. Rainey, DeKalb school superintendent, and Mayor Scott Candler, of Decatur. They were enthusiastically received by the gathering.

All speakers declared the 15-mill limitation to be a "pact of the rich people of the state," working against the mass of the people.

Plans were discussed, but no action taken, on setting up a DeKalb county organization under Commissioner Matthews to fight the amendment. The commissioner is vice president of the Georgia Association of County Commissioners and is chairman of the association's committee fighting the 15-mill limitation.

LABOR HEADS TO STUDY DOCK WAGE INCREASE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Labor Department announced today that a study of dock wage increases would represent the government Wednesday at a conference of ship owners and representatives of longshoremen in Charleston, South Carolina.

The conference, called by Edward F. McGrady, assistant secretary of labor, will consider the request of longshoremen employed in the Charleston and Wilmington, N. C., ports for increased wages and improved working conditions.

Holt Ross, New Orleans, organizer for the American Federation of Labor and special representative of the International Longshoremen's Union, will direct negotiations for the longshoremen.

HEBER SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The explosion of between 700 and 800 dynamite caps killed Moody Alton Henson, 31, Works Progress project foreman, and injured possibly fatally his four-year-old son, Hugh Waldon, at their home near here today, leaving behind her shoes, a handkerchief and two notes in which she denied accusations she had been taking narcotics.

She was pulled from the water 80 feet below the bridge by a fisherman. The woman was taken to Charity hospital where it was found she suffered a fractured pelvis and serious internal injuries. Her condition was critical.

WOMAN, 32, INJURED IN LEAP FROM BRIDGE
SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Vera Henson, 32, jumped from the traffic bridge into Red river here today, leaving behind her shoes, a handkerchief and two notes in which she denied accusations she had been taking narcotics.

She was pulled from the water 80 feet below the bridge by a fisherman. The woman was taken to Charity hospital where it was found she suffered a fractured pelvis and serious internal injuries. Her condition was critical.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT SETS UP NEW RECORDS

Many Nations and Virtually Every State Represented in Schools Here.

Atlanta colleges became an educational melting pot of nations this week as students from Cuba, Puerto Rico, Japan, Panama, South American countries and virtually every state of the nation joined local scholars to well enrollments of local institutions to record proportions. Over 2,000 students are expected to have been enrolled at Georgia Tech for the fall semester when registration of co-op students is completed today. Freshmen began enrolling here last Tuesday, and while complete figures are not yet available, school authorities anticipated it will be the largest freshman class in several years. The official registration last year was 1,900.

Classes at Tech officially began yesterday. Agnes Scott's enrollment was filled by advance applications several weeks ago. Classes will begin Wednesday. One new cottage has been obtained to help take care of the overflow.

At Oglethorpe an increase of 10 per cent in enrollment is anticipated.

authorities announced, after checking advance reservations. The Atlanta Law school, which opened last Wednesday, reported an enrollment of 141 and the addition of a course on income tax to satisfy the demand for more thorough knowledge of this subject created by the Social Security Acts.

At Columbia Theological Seminary an increased enrollment was announced. This school opened September 10, but official registration figures are not yet completed.

The Atlanta Southern Dental College is to begin registration September 30 and begin classes the same day. Emory University freshmen in both the College of Arts and Science and the School of Business Administration will begin registering at 1 o'clock this afternoon in the Theology chapel. J. G. Stripe, registrar, announced. Special orientation exercises have been planned for the first year men this week and upperclassmen will begin registering next week, Mr. Stripe said.

A slight enrollment increase was noted at Washington Seminary when it opened for the fall last Thursday with 300 students. Cox College opened its doors officially last Friday with an enrollment which probably will exceed last year's, authorities forecast. Georgia Military Academy, which opened last Wednesday, reports the enrollment of 315 boys, a slight increase over the registration last year.

With the inauguration of scientific courses for graduate nurses, the Evening School of Applied Science of the Georgia School of Technology opened its fall term last night. The registration was announced as slightly larger than in previous years.

Shriners and Kiwanians Map Plans For Southeastern Fair Programs

Officials of the Kiwanis Club and Yaarab Temple of the Shrine completed details of the days dedicated to their respective organizations at the twenty-second annual Southeastern Fair, October 4-11, at a conference Monday afternoon at Lakewood park with Mike Benton, president.

Junior Chamber of Commerce officers also were present and agreed to sponsor a Southeastern Fair parade, but will complete the parade details today at a special meeting. Tuesday, October 6, has been set aside as Kiwanis day.

Jesse Draper, president of the Kiwanis Club, will be in charge of the program and will be assisted by Forrest Traylor and Arthur Falkenberg, co-chairmen of the entertainment and Southeastern Fair committee. Joe Slaw, governor of the Georgia district, and Dean Owens, of Rome, lieutenant governor of Georgia Kiwanians, also have been named on the special committee.

Interclub Day.
Kiwanians will observe the day as the annual interclub of clubs days, with the members of the first division, hosts of the division, comprising clubs from Marietta, Rome, Cedartown, Blue Ridge, Lawrenceville and Atlanta.

All Kiwanis clubs of the state will receive special invitations to be present and the "On to Albany" Club will be formed at the fair. The Albany Kiwanis convention follows two days after the fair program and the members will go from the fair directly to Albany.

A barbecue at 5 o'clock, a midway entertainment with visiting members as guests, and a dance in the casino from 10 to 12 o'clock will feature Kiwanis day.

Special Kiwanis fireworks will be shown across the lake from the grandstand, an added attraction to the regular fair fireworks on October 6.

Shrine Day October 8.
Shriners' Day at the fair has been set for Thursday, October 8, as Mike Benton, the president, is co-operating with officers of the Shrine to make it one of the most attractive days during the fair.

Roy S. Mather, potentate of the Yaarab temple, will be in charge and will be assisted by Dr. Charles E. Wilson, chairman of the activities committee. His assistants include LeRoy Webb, W. N. Daniel, Bob Estes, Barnes Snie, J. W. Battle and Frank Cunnell.

A special program will be presented in front of the grandstand from 8:30 to 9 o'clock. The Yaarab patrol, the Charters, Oriental band, the Shrine band, the Legion of Honor and the degree team in uniform will participate. As an added attraction to the fireworks program, Shrine fireworks will be presented.

A basket dinner for Shriners and their families will be served at 6 o'clock and a dance from 10 o'clock to midnight will conclude the day's activities.

The Shriners will be in charge of the Old Heidelberg Village which will be open every day and night during the fair and it has been designated as headquarters for Shriners during the fair.

J. T. TOLER TO ATTEND CIRCULATION MEETING
J. T. Toler, circulation manager of The Constitution, will leave for Miami this morning to attend the annual convention of the Southern Circulation Managers' Association Thursday and Friday. He is scheduled to appear on the program.

Mr. Toler is a member of this association and also is vice president of the International Circulation Managers' Association.

An executive meeting of the southern association will be held Wednesday, Fred M. Grimm, president, said. Convention subjects will include legislation affecting circulation, newsboy welfare, carrier contests and transportation costs, he announced.

Horace Powell, circulation manager of the Journal, also will attend the convention.

TRAFFIC POLICE MOVE INTO NEW QUARTERS
The police traffic bureau was moved yesterday to spacious new quarters located in the part of police headquarters facing on Peachtree street.

With removal of the office, Captain Jack Malcom and his office personnel will adopt several innovations planned to further improve Atlanta's traffic enforcement system. Special men showing where accidents occur and where motorists figuring in the accidents reside, have been installed. In the new office those arrested for traffic violations may post collateral guaranteeing their appearance in recorder's court without walking around the building to the Butler street entrance.

FOUR ARE FINED $500 ON LOTTERY CHARGES
Fines totaling $500 were imposed on two women and two men yesterday by Judge Jesse M. Wood in Fulton criminal court for violations of the lottery law.

Those found guilty of lottery offenses were Bess Lovinger and his wife, Pearl, and Mrs. M. H. Andrews and J. C. Watts, all of whom were arrested recently by county police in a raid on an alleged lottery headquarters located in a house off Campbellton road. Lovinger was fined $250 and given a 12-month suspended sentence. His wife was fined $100 or 12 months. Mrs. Andrews was fined a similar amount and J. C. Watts was fined $50 or six months.

MRS. BLANCHE HAND TO BE BURIED TODAY
Funeral services for Mrs. Blanche Hand, 70, prominent resident of Atlanta for many years, who died Sunday while on a visit to Washington, D. C., will be held at 11:30 o'clock this morning at the Spring Hill chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son, with Dr. Ellis A. Fuller and Dr. Roland Knight officiating. Burial will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Hand was visiting her son, M. W. Hand, when she was stricken apparently by a heart attack. She was an active member of the First Baptist church. She lived with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Chalmers, at 839 Penn avenue, N. E.

STURDIVANT CHANGES POLICE ASSIGNMENTS
Special orders resigning all automobiles in the police department, including 10 new cars, and assigning four policemen to new duties were issued yesterday by Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant. The order also contained a warning regarding city ordinances governing behavior of workers at the polls.

Patrolman E. H. Johnson, on motorcycle duty, was assigned to a radio car, swapping places with Patrolman C. R. Allen. D. G. Gaines, patrolman on the morning watch, was assigned to motorcycle duty. Motorcycle Patrolman E. S. Elliott will have new duties in the traffic bureau.

SIX NORTH CAROLINANS WILL JOIN IN AIR TOUR
With the entry of six planes by the North Carolina Aero Club in the forthcoming Georgia products aerial treasure hunt, more than 30 ships are now registered to participate in the aerial tour, Major Wiley Wright, of the Bureau of Air Commerce of the Department of Commerce, who is in charge of entries, announced yesterday.

The air tourists will depart from the Atlanta airport Friday morning and stop at Athens, Augusta and Savannah that day. Saturday the air-cade will visit Waycross, Valdosta and Albany. Upon leaving Albany Sunday morning the tour will make landings at Columbus, Macon, Griffin and Atlanta.

THE RETURN OF JOAN

BY JOSEPH McCORD

INSTALLMENT XX.

Deeds could not have explained his hesitation. He still was unafraid, but there was something in the man's face—sudden suggestion of a hidden threat—that gave him pause.

"Well," he granted defensively. "Get on with it."

"You puzzle me, McCune. You may be the best you represent yourself to be. But you're peculiarly combative for such a role. I haven't the time or inclination to check up on you, so long as you're here, it's unnecessary. I'm older than you, and my profession makes me a fair judge of character. I take it that you are a normal young man. I wonder if there may not have been some indiscretion in the past that you would pre-empting generally. We're all like that to regret. Wait now . . . I'm that."

"But we're not all screwy," Deeds objected bluntly. "Let's . . ."

"A moment. What I wanted to remind you of was the fact that these regrettable moments are not reserved to men. I trust you get my meaning. I'm speaking of impulsive actions . . . necessarily."

Deeds' face grew white under its tan. His eyes narrowed dangerously and his jaw set in a grim clench. He spoke in a low, clear voice.

"Get out!"

At Deeds' McCune's low-voiced threat, Sloan Ellege merely shrugged his shoulders. Very deliberately he rose to his feet and faced the younger man. His tone was unflinching.

"I thought we had decided to drop the matter," he said. "But if you insist, I'll be glad to hear your side of the story. He held up his slender, well-shaped hands and regarded them through his half-closed eyes. "I'd much prefer not to denigrate, but I could choose the life of you with those . . . before you knew what was happening, my friend. So please . . ."

The cold gray eyes flicked their glance into Deeds' . . . bored relentlessly. With very muscle tense, the younger man appeared to be hypnotized. He heard Sloan's words, seeming to come from a great distance.

"I think you are going to be sensible now. Try to get it into your juvenile mind that I am not defaming anyone's character. You are trying to be very heroic, and you want very much to threaten me . . . to tell me that you are a man of name is not to be hurt into our talk."

MANNERS OF THE MOMENT

"Ah, ah. The correct pronunciation is a-DULT, not ADULT."

Purists are all very well in an English class. But when they come to tea parties, we usually wish we hadn't met them. Some of these little purists have a way of butting right into one's sentence and saying, "Tut, tut. Don't you know that's the wrong way to pronounce 'sacred'?"

No doubt we should be grateful to them for pointing out to us the vulgarities in our speech. But tea party corrections of our choice of penultimate make us fighting mad, and we present such good arguments for using the wrong pronunciation that we usually concede ourselves. If these purists were really interested in improving the language they'd go at it more tactfully. They'd start an impersonal argument about the pronunciation of some word no one had used yet. They could bring in any number of other mispronounced words during the course of the dictionary search that would inevitably follow. Then they might really teach us something. But the way they've been acting lately we've gotten so that we say "liberty" just to be stubborn.

INDIANS OF WESTERN CANADA.

Use of the Buffalo.

One hundred and thirty-six years ago, Daniel W. Haymon, a partner of the Northwest Company, started on travels through western Canada where he spent much time among the Indians before many whites settled among them. In one place we read: "They kill buffaloes with bows and arrows . . . they generally cut up the body of an animal into 11 pieces. These pieces are the four limbs, the two sides of ribs, the two sinews on each side of the backbone, the brisket, the crop and the backbone. Besides these, they save the tongue, heart and liver. The head they carry home, and eat the meat on it."

In dressing the skin, they take off all the meat then stretch the skin on a frame and let it dry. They next scrape off all the hair, and smoke the skin, after which of each end, and they hold it over a fire until it is perfectly dry. After this, it is smoked over a fire built with wet wood, and becomes fit for use.

The skins of buffaloes were used in many ways by Indians of the plains. Perhaps the most important use was to cover the poles of the tepee (also spelled "tipi"). These Indians made long journeys when hunting, and it was fine to be able to take the tepees down and carry them wherever they might go.

Many other uses were found for slain buffaloes. The hollow horns were used for drinking cups, or were shaped into long spoons. Some of the large bones were employed as "war clubs." Glue was obtained by boiling the hoofs, and the sinews were dried so they could serve as bow-strings, or "thread" for sewing clothing together.

Buffalo robes were used as blankets, and sometimes pieces of the hide were made into moccasins or other articles of clothing. Often the flesh of a buffalo was sliced into thin pieces, which were hung over a fire to be dried and smoked. Such meat could be kept for many months.

Another dried food obtained from the buffalo was pemmican. The meat was mixed with yellowish-brown powder. Then it was packed in bags, and was carried about until needed. Sometimes the pemmican powder was mixed with marrow fat and dried blueberries.

JUDGE GRAHAM ISSUES STATEMENT TO PUBLIC

Protests Placing of O. J. Franklin's Name on Election Ballot.

McRAE, Ga., Sept. 21.—Judge Eschel Graham of the Oconee judicial circuit today issued the following statement to the press:

"To the Public: Publicity having been given to criticisms of the state Democratic executive committee by Judge O. J. Franklin touching his failure to qualify according to the rules of the party as candidate in the recent primary for judge of the Oconee circuit, it seems proper that I should make this statement.

"For the present I shall withhold comment on his reflection on my political honor and integrity further than to say that it was not my fault that he did not know how to qualify nor am I to blame for his failure.

"The matter occurred and the chairman ruled before I knew anything about it. Pending his appeal from the ruling of the chairman, I stated and he had an affidavit to such effect which I am told he did not use before the committee. I was willing for him to run. However, the ruling of the chairman and committee was in accordance with the rules of the primary. It was not partisan.

"At the time, Judge Franklin was claiming to be a Talmadge supporter. As late as July 23 while his appeal was pending, he wrote Governor Talmadge requesting the Governor to have his name placed on the ticket. He stated in the letter that he and his brothers had always supported the Governor and that if the Governor would have the committee qualify him that he would support and use his influence for the Governor in the race for the senate. The Governor replied that it was not his policy to interfere with the committee in the interpretation of the rules or to take part between friends.

"I submit the committee had no authority to vary the rule or to make an exception in favor of Judge Franklin.

"Party primaries must be held under the law of the state and the rules of the party. In reference to judges of the superior court, it is provided by law and the rules of the party, that the primary be held on same date as the state primary and that the people of the respective circuits vote for and nominate their judge.

"It was provided in the rule calling the primary that candidates in addition to paying their assessment should file with the secretary in Atlanta a statement signed by the candidate naming the office for which he sought to enter, and the name of no candidate shall be placed on the official ballot who fails to pay the required assessment and file such signed statement by the time named. This was not a new rule. No provision was made in the rule to qualify by telegram.

"Judge Franklin did not file with the secretary a statement signed by him naming the office for which he sought to enter. He merely sent a telegram. This telegram when received by the secretary did not have his signature but at most was just a copy. The rule did not contemplate the filing of his signed statement in some office 100 miles away and sending a copy by telegram. In some commercial transactions where the parties are contemplating the use of the agency of a telegram the sending of a telegram is deemed sufficient.

"But such would not apply where the signature of either party is required to be on a certain date. One hundred and twenty-three of us qualified by filing our signed statement. None of us construed the rule to mean the entry might be made by wire. I was not present but I am informed Judge Franklin proved on the hearing of the appeal that the rule requiring the signed statement had been in effect 20 years and that no candidate had ever before attempted to qualify by telegram.

"The chairman properly held that he did not qualify because of his failure to sign and file the statement. On appeal the committee could not if it obeyed the law have done otherwise than to hold him unqualified.

"The law and party rule require the candidates nominated in the primary, unless a second primary be called, to be placed on the Democratic ticket in the general election as the nominees of the party. The state convention cannot, without overriding the law, nominate another candidate but is required in the absence of contest or disqualification of the candidate to confirm the result of the primary. It is not contended that I am disqualified and no contest has been filed as provided by the law.

"Object of Primary. The object of the primary is to do away with convention nominations and to let the people name their candidate. The primary has been held in accordance with the law and rules of the party and I have received from my people the nomination for judge of the Oconee circuit, having been given 11,059 votes for the office.

"Now Judge Franklin proposes to ask the state convention to disregard the law and rules of the party, to use his own language, to run roughshod over the law and will of the people, set aside my nomination, place his name on the Democratic ticket along with mine, and to submit the question to the whole state as to who should be the next judge of the Oconee circuit. Such is not in accord with the law and principles of the Democratic party. In behalf of the people of my circuit and in behalf of the people of the state, I protest against this unDemocratic and unprecedented method of nominating their judge. It has never before been denied to the people of any circuit the right given them under the law to nominate their judge. I believe that it will be done in this case, and hereafter, if it is done in this case, then hereafter any convention may on any flimsy excuse set aside any nomination made by the primary.

"ESCHOL, GRAHAM.

"McRAE, Ga., Sept. 21, 1936."

JUDGE SHEFFIELD, 71, PASSES AT BLAKELY

BLAKELY, Ga., Sept. 21.—Judge R. Howard Sheffield, 71, was found dead at his home here early today. A coroner's jury returned a finding that death was caused by heart disease.

SPARTA MORTICIAN, DIES

SPARTA, Ga., Sept. 21.—Frank I. Orgain, 52, well-known local mortician, died at a Macon hospital last night after two days' illness. Mr. Orgain was stricken ill while in Macon to meet a body coming in by train and was carried to the hospital where he never fully recovered consciousness.

One sister, Mrs. Agnes Blackwell, and two nephews survive.

KIWANIANS TO HEAR

COBB AND PETERSON

SWAINSBORO, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Cully A. Cobb, of Washington, southeastern director of the AAA, and Congressman Hugh Peterson are on the program of the meeting here next Tuesday of Kiwanis clubs of the eighth Georgia district.

ACCREDITED SCHOOLS SHOW BIG INCREASE

ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The number of four-year accredited high schools in Georgia increased from 12 in 1905 to 471 in 1933.

Progress in high school work in the state is reviewed in three bulletins published by the accrediting commission of the University of Georgia.

T. J. Dempsey Jr., commission secretary, said the survey showed that the grade of work students do in high schools may be used as an accurate basis for predicting their success in college.

SENATE RUN-OFF

JESUP, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The run-off race between J. P. Shedd and Douglas F. Thomas for state senator from this district will be held Wednesday. Shedd was Wayne county representative in the state legislature.

FLOYD SOLO TO SEEK STATE PARDON BOARD

J. Scott Davis, House Member, Also Favors Auto Drivers' License.

ROME, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—J. Scott Davis, veteran of two legislative sessions who will be back in the house of representatives, said today he would seek legislation to create a pardon board to act on clemency matters.

He said he would favor a board of "two or four disinterested and non-partisan members to sit with the governor on pardon cases."

Asked for his views on various legislation he would favor, Davis said he would support, or introduce bills seeking:

1. An automobile drivers' license law. 2. Right of the legislature to convene itself in an emergency, or for purposes of impeachment. 3. Creation of a state highway patrol.

4. Some change or amendment to the budget bill to prevent the governor from dictating the personnel of all the department workers to the hurt and harm of the different departments. 5. Some change in and state highway board to make it more efficient, and to take it out of politics as much as possible.

Davis, who served six terms in the house after being elected in 1923, said also he favored old age pensions "with sensible state regulations as to amounts and persons qualified to receive it."

He said if "anything is done about the prohibition law it should be left to the people to decide."

The nominee described the proposed 15-mile tax limitation amendment as full of deception and pitfalls for the masses of our people.

"They will overwhelmingly defeat it in November if it is explained to them."

"If it is adopted, he said it would mean a much higher income tax and a heavy sales tax for this state. I am bitterly opposed to this bill."

He said he had confidence in the new commissioner of agriculture and shall back what he wants to do about financing state farmers' markets.

INVESTIGATORS CHARGE MAN IN BOND THEFTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Pete Metropolis, seventh member of an alleged gang dealing in "shot bonds" to be brought to book, was arraigned late today in federal court as a participant in the disposition of more than $2,000,000 worth of bonds.

Metropolis, whose arrest in Haverhill, Mass., was announced in Washington earlier in the day by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, pleaded innocent and bail was fixed at $4,000.

The gang, the federal authorities said, stole securities valued at $1,450,000 from the Bank of Manhattan Company on January 28, 1935, and others valued at $500,000 from the United States Trust Company on December 12, 1934.

Disposition of the loot was made possible, said investigators, through the opening of "brokerage accounts" in Boston, New York and Washington.

The specific charge against Metropolis was transporting stolen property interstate.

DOUGLASVILLE JUDGE URGES LIMIT ON TAXES ON EXPORTS HITS SNAG

J. R. Hutcheson Says This Best Method of 'Discouraging Extravagance.'

DOUGLASVILLE, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Tax limitation, Judge J. R. Hutcheson told a Douglas county grand jury today, is the best method of "discouraging extravagance and unnecessary expense" in the administration of law and government.

"The question of limiting taxation and exempting homesteads from taxation is before our people at the coming election in November," said the jurist, who presides over the Tallapoosa superior court circuit.

"It is not a political question, but is more of an economic question. I think one of the most important questions before our people. Of course, there is too much money spent, and taxes are too high. Certainly authorities—state, county, municipal and school, should seek to economize rather than to raise taxes. The overhead expenses of the government as a whole are too high."

Judge Hutcheson said taxes are so high now "that one cannot afford to own his place of business or his home."

"I wish every man in the country could own his home. I would rather live in a shack and know that the shack and pigpen are mine, than to live in a mansion and claim nothing as a home."

U.S.-JAPAN AGREEMENT ON EXPORTS HITS SNAG

Philippines Gets More Than Quota of Textiles; Transshipments Blamed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Commerce Department today announced a 1935 Japanese-American "gentleman's agreement" failed in its first year by 3,175,000 square meters to hold Japanese shipments of cotton piece goods to the Philippines to the specified maximum.

State Department officials, however, said the agreement would continue unaltered and expressed hope it would reach its aim by its scheduled expiration date, next August 1.

Transshipment of Japanese textiles at Hong Kong, which the Japanese interests said they found difficult to control, were blamed for the excess of arrivals in the Philippines.

The Commerce Department reported Philippine customs bureau figures showed total arrivals in the 12 months of 32,675,000 square meters, of which 43,976,000 were direct from Japan, and 8,699,000 were via Hong Kong. The maximum permitted under the agreement was 49,500,000 square meters.

Provided there should be no increase in the Philippine tariff on cotton piece goods the Japanese agreed to hold their exports to the islands within a 10 per cent margin of flexibility in the first year.

The Hong Kong transshipments, the Commerce Department said, were "negligible" until last January, but this year became an important factor.

'YOUR FIGURE, MADAME!'

By IDA JEAN KAIN.

FOODS, FACTS AND FIGURES.

Calorie subtraction makes the difference in your figure. How much do you weigh? How much do you want to weigh? The difference represents 4,000 calories per pound of surplus weight.

You can count on using 14 to 16 calories for each pound of normal weight. Mind you, said normal weight, for fat is dead weight no less, and inert tissue does not burn calories. Always use normal weight as a basis for calorie calculation.

Without exercise, you can use from 14 to 16 calories a pound. With light exercise, each pound of weight burns 16 to 18 calories. Muscle lazy people use about 15 calories per pound of body weight. If you do all your own housework, you burn approximately 16 calories for each pound. But working only on the maid's day out, your average will be 15 to the pound.

Are you good at figures? Here's the way it works out: Supposing you weigh 150 pounds when nature's original plan for you was 120, you have more than you should! One hundred and twenty pounds multiplied by 15 gives 1,800 calories, your normal daily allowance. Eventually, on this number, you could lose the 30-odd pounds, but it would take too long.

To burn excess calories at the rate of one or two pounds per week you should cut your daily calorie allowance to two-thirds the normal amount. For the other one-third of your energy, you draw on stored calories, using the 30 extra pounds as fuel in approximately six months' time.

In general, the small person of five feet to five feet two inches in height will reduce at a safe and satisfying rate on 1,000 calories per day. The average woman of five feet three to five feet five inches should use a reducing diet of 1,200 calories per day. The taller woman of five feet six to five feet eight can lose weight on 1,400 calories a day. The larger-than-average woman can usually reduce on as many as 1,600 calories per day.

A combination of diet and exercise gives you the best medium of weight control. Exercise will assure you of calorie subtraction around the waist and over the hips. Without exercise, however, the fat pervades comes off the face, throat and shoulders.

Reducing is an exact science by

Friendly Counsel

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

Dear Miss Chatfield: What is a home without a cook? Please tell me that. My wife is a good woman but we have anything fit to eat at our house. If I could get her to cook and cut up so I take back all I have said. For five years now I have put up with this and my stomach and my mind and health are suffering.

HUNGRY HUSBAND.

Answer: The solution of your problem should be easy. If your wife can read. Practically every important newspaper carries helpful hints to housewives, gives menus and explicit directions for preparing delectable dishes. There are recipe books by the hundreds that can be bought at bookstores. And husbands have been known to don aprons, go into the kitchen and help their wives learn to cook.

Now catch mama when she is in a good humor and give her a good talking to. Remind her that she is no longer a child but a housewife with a job to be done. Call her attention to the fact that you are working to provide the money for the table and her part in the marriage firm is to make her family comfortable with what you bring in. Suggest that you sit down together in the evening and study a good recipe book as though it were a textbook which you two had to pass examination on. She will be tickled to death with the game. And if you will help her prepare a few meals when you are home with nothing to do you will find that there is no better fun for husbands and wives than playing with food, pots and pans and turning out good dinners.

A home without a cook is no home at all. A hungry man or a man with indigestion is about as pleasant a fireside companion as a lion would be to the wife who fails to feed her family well-cooked and appetizing food deserves just that sort of companion. There are a lot of women who won't admit that a good dinner and a comfortable chair have any bearing on love. But the truth is that even a wife who is an eye full of beauty and an arm full of charms can't keep a husband satisfied if there is a thunderstorm in his stomach.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Dear Miss Chatfield: I have a young sister, years old who is the most difficult person to cope with. She is extremely dramatic, a good actor and a big liar. When she exasperates me beyond endurance I slap her and she lets out a piercing scream, goes into hysterics and fights like a tiger. Then she goes to mother and tells a tale that has no truth in it. She is the baby member of the family spoiled to death. There is always a fight going on in the house and she is always the center of it. What can we do?

THANKS.

Answer: You can treat the child with strict politeness and get politeness in return. You can avoid her tantrums by refraining from talking to her. She won't turn tiger if you keep your hands off her. The little rascal has evidently had too much attention of every sort from the whole family and too little discipline from her parents; yet in this day when most people consider a crime for parents to lay hands on their children it is certainly a mistake for brothers and sisters to undertake ear-boxing and cat-slapping. The worst part of the whole business is not the irritation the little one causes the older ones but the irreparable damage that is being done to her disposition.

GUARANTEED RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Common constipation is usually due to meals low in "bulk." Pills and drugs give only temporary relief. The sensible thing to do is to put "bulk" back into your meals.

Millions of people get this needed "bulk" in a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Its "bulk" is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Some years ago, an investigation was made among thousands of ALL-BRAN users. 98 per cent found it satisfactory. Only 2 per cent had the type of constipation that would not respond to ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily, either as cereal or in cooked dishes. ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MRS. INMAN SANDERS.

December 17 marks the natal day of Mrs. Inman Sanders, world traveler, raconteur and one of Atlanta's most charming and cultured women.

The sun, powerfully placed, dominates the chart in connection with the planet Uranus, gives intuition, altruism, to a splendid sense of values. She gains loyalty to friends from the same planet. The moon position also favors travels, voyages. This is evidenced by the fact that Mrs. Sanders has probably traveled in every civilized country in the world.

The Venus-Saturn position gives her a love for art and culture and the finer things of life.

The Sun-Saturn position gives persistence, tact and control. Alpharatz and Andromeda's head, fortunate fixed stars, in this chart give honor and preferment. There is intellectual and independence. The sun's aspect to the midheaven becomes the promise, not only of continued success, but good health throughout a long life.

Mrs. John Sanford and Daughter To Be Honored at Buffet Luncheon

Mrs. Lee Ashcraft and Mrs. Claude A. McGinnis Jr., her daughter, will entertain at a buffet luncheon on Wednesday at their home on Ponce de Leon avenue in Druid Hills as a complimentary gesture to Mrs. John Sanford and Miss Dorothy Sanford, her daughter.

Mrs. Sanford departs at an early date for New York city and sails from that port on a European voyage the first week in October. Miss Sanford, who attended the Finch school in New York city last year, leaves next week to resume her studies at the same educational institution in the metropolis.

Mrs. Ashcraft and Mrs. McGinnis have invited 25 friends to meet the honor guests, who are numbered among the socially prominent and popular members of the married and college contingents.

confirmed) and that card was in East's hand. East had actually shown the ace-ten of spades, and the series of diamond plays clearly established that East had started with the king ten of diamonds. That was all declared had to know. Why, East could not have the club queen? If he had held it he would have had 1-2 honor tricks, plus at least two tens, and 4-3-3 distribution, and he would certainly have responded to a heart bid with two no trump, rather than a mere single raise.

Once declared had satisfied himself that West must hold the club queen and that a normal finesse could not succeed, there was only one alternative left him—a backward finesse. He therefore led the club pack. West covered; dummy's ace won and then a club was returned and the nine spot finessed. Declarer was lucky to find the ten in East's hand, but it must be noted that if West had held it with the queen, nothing could be done about it. The sound reasoning that located the queen deserved a little luck!

TODAY'S QUESTION.
Question: If a penalty has been paid and it is later discovered to have been wrong, what should be done about it?
Answer: A penalty once paid stands even though at some later time it is discovered to have been incorrect.

Caroline Latimer To Be Christened At Church Service in Cartersville

By Sally Forth.

THE QUIANT little Episcopal Church of Our Savior in Cartersville at which Frances Weinman became the bride of Carroll Latimer Jr., two and a half years ago, will form the setting for the christening of her adorable 5-month-old daughter, Caroline Weinman Latimer. The ceremony has been set for 4:30 o'clock next Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. Jack Soaper, rector of the church, officiating.

Tiny Caroline is the namesake of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. William J. Weinman, of Cartersville. Standing as her godmother will be Mary Ann Carr who acted as maid of honor at the marriage of the baby's parents. Another attendant on that auspicious occasion, Leonard Richardson, will serve as godfather.

The baby will wear for the christening a tiny gold cross which was worn by her mother when she was christened Frances Weinman, "Cary," the net name given her by her parents, will wear a baptiste robe trimmed with real lace and embroidered in a forget-me-not design. A rosette of narrow white satin ribbon will grace her shoulder, and the long streamer will extend the length of the christening robe.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Weinman will be hosts to a group of close friends at an informal reception at their Cartersville home, following the service at the church. Mrs. Carroll Latimer, of Atlanta, paternal grandmother of the baby, will assist the hosts in entertaining.

TWENTY happy friends barked "Happy birthday to you," at Miki, the Airedale belonging to Mrs. Jack Smith, when his mistress entertained at a birthday party yesterday at a kennel here, the occasion celebrating the dog's 17th anniversary. Mrs. Smith, the former Miss Irene Hirsch, of Atlanta, resides in Santa Barbara, Cal., but is spending some time in Atlanta. And Miki, being like a member of the family, goes everywhere with his mistress.

Mrs. Smith raised Miki from a small puppy, and he has more than repaid the kindness lavished on him for he twice saved her life. On two different occasions, Mexican bandits entered her country home near Santa Barbara and the brave dog held them at bay until help came for Mrs. Smith.

MANY Atlantans are quite delighted with a recent rumor, to the effect that a lovely young brunet Atlantian is on the verge of marrying an extremely handsome Atlanta artist and businessman. Their approaching wedding pleases all who know them, as they were childhood sweethearts.

WHEN Al Holder, former Atlantian, and his bride, the former Jean Howard, Buffalo society girl, return to their home in Buffalo from their wedding trip to Bermuda, they will take possession of a most attractive home there. The bride is very artistic and she has decorated the third floor of the home in a vivid blue, as a studio, where she will spend many hours with paints and canvas.

Grant Park Club Met With Mrs. Miner. September meeting of Grant Park Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Plennie Miner, with Mrs. Vivian Middleton assisting hostess.

Mrs. W. R. Allgood, the president, presided at the business session. Mrs. C. W. Henry gave a colorful description of the trip and picnic held recently at Mrs. Willard R. Leach's Tate Mountain Estates home.

An interesting talk was given by Mrs. Charles J. Haden on student aid. Mrs. John M. Maublin was welcomed as a visitor and Mrs. Montgomery as a new member. The October meeting will be held with Mrs. C. E. Cameron at 318 Georgia avenue, S. E.

Tea Towel Set is Fun to Stitch

What more appropriate motifs for tea towels than those of silver, glass and china—those three household importances, which vie in interest with flower sprays in natural coloring. They'll make your kitchen a more colorful place to be. They're so easy to embroider in cross stitch, lazy daisy and outline stitch, you'll want to have several sets in readiness for gifts.

In pattern 5694 you will find a transfer pattern of six motifs averaging 5 1/2 inches; material requirements; color suggestions; illustrations of all stitches needed.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to Household Arts Dept., The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Bring Out the Beauty Hidden in Your Skin. There is no excuse for any woman having a skin that is blemished, sallow or unlovely when she can so easily make her complexion young and beautiful with pure Mercolized Wax. It is the most natural way to restore the fading loveliness of any skin. Mercolized Wax discards the old worn-out surface skin and reveals the flawless beauty of the girl's under skin. The skin comes off in such tiny flakes that the actual absorption is visible. When the under skin is revealed, the improvement in the texture, softness and beauty of your complexion will delight you. Bring out your hidden beauty with Mercolized Wax.

THE WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, Sunday.—If there is one thing more than any other that has always annoyed me, it is the person who chronicles his or her bodily ills.

Our old friend, Louis Howe, was a fairly consistent invalid for many, many years, but he said very little about his pains and aches. I remember a lady who succeeded in telling him and someone else in his presence all about a series of operations. His only remark when she left was: "Quite an organ recital, what?"

I haven't even anything as interesting as that, simply the daily routine of what has been on the whole a rather pleasant "Land of Counterpane." Today I can read again. It really isn't too much effort to hold a book, or think about anything, or to look at anyone, as it was up to yesterday. On the whole, except for the fact that invalids are subject to a certain amount of discipline in the way of pills, food and physical care, I have rather enjoyed the day.

I read the papers; James, who came in from Springfield, Mass., and leaves again tonight, came in for a talk, and then I had a talk with my husband before he went to lunch.

It is always somewhat tantalizing, because he no sooner leaves than I remember things I meant to ask him and did not. He leaves again for Hyde Park to be with his mother tomorrow on her birthday. I will be going up late in the week.

I had a visit from a young friend of mine last night—a boy who has been taking to days' vacation driving his small car from New York state to his home state of Missouri. He came back through Tennessee and spent more than a week at home.

Since he had seen his sister and her husband on their farm, I was interested to hear his impressions on the drouth and how keenly he felt about the farmers' problems. The hardships were all vivid to him, but the joys were as well. His eyes fairly glowed as he told me how much his little niece meant to him, and what a wonder she was at six years to ride her pony after the cows.

Everyone needs to get home to touch their particular roots every so often, if it is possible. Sometimes our own particular roots do happen to be our family, they may have grown to be some friends. They may be some other place than our birthplace—some place where we more easily renew our spirit. For the young it is important that there should be some such place. I imagine that is what older people really are allowed to live for, to act as the background where youth can turn for the necessary stoking-up.

Sunday quiet has certainly reigned in this house today. But tomorrow Mrs. Schider will find the usual White House activities on her hands, only I alone can gloat over them all in peace.

Towns Will Report To Bulldogs Today

"I Want To See Coach Baskin First of All," Declares Great Hurdler.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Ready to substitute broken field running for timber topping, Forrest "Spec" Towns, world champion 110-meter high hurdler, prepared today to join the University of Georgia gridiron squad.

Towns, whose fleetness of foot gave him the Olympic hurdler title in the time of 14.1, reached home from Europe today and leaves tomorrow for the college at Athens.

"I had my heart set on winning the Olympic championship," Towns said, "and now I have my heart set on making the football team. I have two more years of football at Georgia and will go back next season." Outside of the "kick" he got out of winning the hurdle championship, Towns said his biggest thrill came when the athletes of all nations were taking the Olympic oath.

PETRELS PLAY AT BALL PARK

Oglethorpe and Newberry Elevens Meet Wednesday Night Here.

Oglethorpe University and Newberry College of South Carolina will play open their 1936 football seasons at Ponce de Leon park Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. They did not play each other last year, a scheduled game being cancelled due to the death of Newberry's president.

The Petrels are shaping up nicely, considering the limited and green squad at hand. While the invaders will have the edge in experience and poundage, Coach John Patrick believes his Petrels will give a good account of themselves.

Patrick is tuning up his squad for the game following a hard training siege. Passing and pass defense are getting plenty of attention. The running game has been impressive.

Berger Hurts Hand; Seems Out for Year

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Wally Berger, slugging outfielder for the Boston Bees, probably will be out of action for the rest of the season as a result of a fractured finger on the left hand, John Quinn, secretary of the Bees, said today.

Quinn said an X-ray revealed the little finger of Berger's left hand was fractured when he was struck by a pitched ball here yesterday in the second game of a double-header with the Phillies. Hugh Mulcahy, a Boston youth, was pitching his first big league game.

Crackers Eliminated From Shaughnessy

Errors Contribute to Williams' Defeat; Birds and Barons Play in Finals.

By Jack Troy.

HEINEMAN PARK, NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 21.—The third-place Barons and the fourth-place Pelicans have emerged from the Shaughnessy grab-bag as contenders for the right to play the Texas league winner in the Dixie Series.

The New Orleans club tonight won the deciding game of the playoff here by a score of 8 to 2.

Two errors by Hooks and a costly one by Al Williams put the Pels on easy street.

There never would have been a big fifth-inning rally but for two errors on easy force plays. The very first run of the game came on Hook's wild throw. It was in the second inning. Williams came out of a tough spot but aided his own downfall in the disastrous fifth.

Williams got in a very tough spot in the second inning, but came out of it with the Pelicans scoring only one run. The one run was due to a wild throw by Hooks on a fielder's choice.

BUTZMAN AGAIN.
Jonas Butzman, who won five games and lost six for the Pels during the regular season, pitched the deciding victory.

He beat the champion Crackers twice in the play-off. Tom Drake, a rookie who won 13 and lost 5 during the season, supplied the first victory in Atlanta.

The Crackers led the league in fielding during the regular season. And so it was a bit ironic that errors should knock them out of the opening play-off.

Williams hit Hank Helf with a pitched ball in the sixth and Larry Gilbert almost caused a riot by charging out and accusing Williams of doing it intentionally. Pelican players charged out and only the diplomacy of Moore and the presence of nine policemen averted serious trouble. Moore removed Williams shortly afterward because of the hostile at-

HIS BRAKES AND STEERING GEAR WERE SAFE...

HE HAD a blow-out. His car was thrown out of control in spite of the fact that his brakes and steering gear were in perfect shape. Things might have been different, though, had his tires been able to stand up under today's high speeds.

Take our tip. Don't you gamble on tires. Get a set of Goodrich Safety Silvertowns. Then you'll have the protection of the Life-Saver Golden Ply, a layer of special rubber and full-floating cords scientifically treated to resist the blowout-causing heat generated inside all tires by today's high speeds. By resisting this heat the Golden Ply keeps rubber and fabric from separating. It keeps blisters from forming. And when you prevent the blister you prevent the high-speed blow-out.

NOTE: Goodrich Silvertowns actually cost much less than other super-quality tires. Don't delay. Come in today.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—(P)—The average price of middling cotton at 10 southern markets was 11.80 cents a pound.

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON

Atlanta spot cotton closed steady, middling, 10.90, 12.35.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—(P)

The cotton market was called on to watch persistent heavy rain today and prices lost from 10 to 14 points during the session.

Trading was active for most of the day and the market met scattered support on the way down, but the trend was definitely lower. Reports from Texas and Oklahoma of more rain were interpreted both bullishly and bearishly by the trade.

Some saw in the moisture a possibility of making a better crop in this area, while other held that rains were too late and were detrimental to this year's potential crop.

Heavy spot sales at leading market continued to aid bullish sentiment, but brought little buying into the ring.

Price fixing by the trade was the main supporting influence at 11.75, December at 11.76, January at 11.76 and May at 11.76. The average price of spot cotton dropped from 11.80 to 11.70.

Spot cotton activities continued to be more important than futures fluctuations.

Exports continued to run heavy. The cumulative total was approximately 70,000 bales ahead of this time last year. The fact that Germany and Italy were not taking the cotton was making inquiries in volume of a year ago has caused some concern in export circles.

Port receipts 61,000; week 104,152; season 1,240,312; last week 1,103,144. Exports 3,510; week 2,198; season 154,251; last week 1,470,140.

Port stocks 1,776,353. Stocks on shipboard at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston were 75,807; last year 77,444. Spot sales at southern markets were 68,423; last year 44,865.

NOTION DECLINES

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(P)—Cotton notion gradually lowered during today's trading under near-month liquidation and continued heavy hedging against the new crop movement. Demand sold off from 11.91 to 11.80 and closed at 9 to 14 points.

The opening was steady, unchanged to 4 points lower under southern liquidation. This was absorbed by trading and Liverpool buying within a comparatively narrow range during early trading. After the close of Liverpool, the buying tapered off and the market, while holding steady, and the lower prices of the day were reached in late dealings.

Except for the foreign demand and steady buying on a scale down, the market seemed without much support, but there was some buying attributed to commission houses on the decline.

Exports today 7,420, making a total of 533,832 for the season. Port receipts 61,010. United States port stocks 1,769,968.

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 21.—Cotton: Receipts 100 bales, including 200 American spot; prices 5 points lower; quotations in new street good middling 7.10; middling 7.30; good midding 7.50; low midding 7.60; good midding 7.80; # RICHMAN, MERRILL LAND IN NEW YORK

Trans-Atlantic Fliers Welcomed on Broadway, Plan
Night Club Tour.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Harry Richman, the night club singer, and Dick Merrill, the aviator, flew home today to a Broadway welcome for the first men to span the Atlantic ocean both ways.

The trans-Atlantic fliers, who a week ago sloshed into a Newfoundland bog when their gasoline supply ran low, had to call on the services of a truck to pull their monoplane
"Lady Peace" loose from mud-covered Floyd Bennett field, from where they hopped off for London, September 2.
They landed at the field at 1:15
p. m. (Atlanta time) and left immediately for Richman's Long Island estate and a planned tour of night clubs and restaurants where Broadway was expected to honor the singer and his pilot.

Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, who flew in a rescue plane to aid Merrill and Richman at Musgrave Harbor, Newfoundland, landed at Newark airport late today and issued a statement regarding as an official explanation of the cause of the fliers' forced landing.
WILLS CHARITY $1,500,000.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 21.—(AP)—
Edwin Robert Crawford, former president of the McKeesport Tin Plate Company, left approximately $1,500,000 to charity under the terms of his will filed for probate today. Attorneys estimated his total estate amounted to $3,825,000.

OWNERS' STAND BALKS
FRENCH STRIKES' END
PARIS, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The government tonight faced new obstacles in its effort to crush "occupation" strikes.
Despite a union agreement to evacuate 65 factories in the Vosges region, some mills were still occupied as strike settlement negotiations were begun.
Employers' demands for complete evacuation of their property blocked a quick accord, but government officials
At Lille 30,000 textile workers resumed work quietly.

THE YEAR'S BEST Value IN ELECTRIC RANGES

Electric Cookery

SAVES TIME

Foods cook electrically, on top of the range or in the oven, as fast as they can be cooked properly and healthfully. The automatic control cooks an entire meal, without watching.

SAVES MONEY

Electricity is spotlessly clean—fewer kitchen decorations, laundering of curtains, dresses and aprons mount into valuable savings. Yet savings in meat shrinkage are more important—20% more than with other methods.

SAVES FOOD VALUES

No super-abundance of water is needed to prevent burning and scorching as in cooking with flaming fuels. Vegetables and meats are cooked in their own juices in live steam... not in boiling water. Minerals and vitamins are kept in—truly Health Cookery.

WESTINGHOUSE WATER HEATER

All in all, there's no cheaper way to have plenty of hot water always on tap than with this Westinghouse 40-
gallon Automatic

$89.75, less $15 allowance. Cash.

$74.75
